DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC □ 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. "Read[ing] through the said specific screen model" is unclear, but is was assumed for examination purposes that user had been authorized.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

- 3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U. S.C. 102(e) that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:
 - (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.
- 4. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Win et al. with Patent Number 6,453.353.
- 5. Regarding claim(s) 1, Win teaches user access levels to specific data. Win teaches while a client logs, col. 6, lines 1-3 on executing an authentication routine based on input to determine an authorization level, col. 5, line 44. Win teaches based on the authorization level collecting

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure is disclosed in the Notice of References Cited. A close review of the references is suggested. A close review of the Snavely reference with Patent Number 6,772,167 and Sampson reference with Patent Number 6,490,624 are suggested. The other references cited teach numerous other ways to limit access to web pages via single log in, thus a close review of them is suggested.
